LUNCHES NEWS

The Christmas Party was a great success. We were very happy with the venue, the food, and the service. A Special thank you to Audrey for all her help and the Probuskers for their singing. The first lunch of the New Year was held at the Palm and Pawn Hotel with 29 in attendance. The next lunch will be at the RSL Club Bistro on 13th February.

GUEST SPEAKER

The Guest Speaker was Angus Cawdell-Smith who is the Museum Education and Public Programs Officer.

Angus spoke on the Museum now that the road into has been completed, this has been quite an undertaking by Wagga City Council.

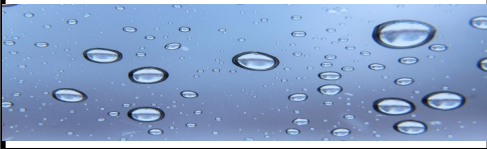

The Museum of the Riverina is responsible for the collection of more than 15,000 objects, photographs, textiles.

We have been waiting for this to be finished before we make arrangements to book and see for ourselves.

Morning Tea in the Botanical Gardens

Morning Tea in the Botanical Gardens was enjoyed by those that came until we had a few drops of rain and those that attended packed up and headed for the hills.

Why is the number six so scared?
Because seven eight nine!
